Sharing the love and grace of Jesus with the world is the call of every Christian. Young or old, bold or shy, new believer or long-time follower of Jesus—we are all called to tell the story of the Savior and show people that he is alive. We are partners in God's work of bringing the message of hope to the world. Yet we always remember that we are not the senior partner—God is!

The Apostle Paul made clear that we have the privilege of scattering seed and watering it, but Only God can change lives, forgive sins, save and transform us (1 Corinthians 3:5-7). To be effective in scattering the seed of the gospel of Jesus, we must keep things in their proper perspective.

2. Red Moon Rising – Pete Greig & Dave Roberts

The 24/7 prayer movement is catalyzing a new generation to pray, obey, and engage people who are far from God with the mission of Jesus like never before. This is the extraordinary story of a movement that started more than fifteen years when a handful of students started a prayer vigil in England. And the prayers they started then haven't stopped. The movement spread throughout the globe and has fueled the transformation of thousands of young adults by God's Spirit.

3. Impossible – Lon Allison

Lon Allison, former director of evangelism with the Evangelical Covenant Denomination, shares his evangelism approach: prayer, care and share. This book will inspire and persuade you to engage in a life of personal witness for Jesus Christ. Offering years of personal experience, Allison clarifies and simplifies the witnessing life. Embrace new attitudes as you begin the journey of a lifetime. Once you begin to pray regularly for unbelievers and your life of witness, your compassion increases. As your compassion increases, you gain power over the fear that paralyzes many from sharing their faith with others. Now's the time to dare—what are you waiting for? You were made for this.
